

Secwepemc Language Film Festival 2018

Call For Submissions

Secwepemc Nation:

Adams Lake Indian Band and Chief Atahm School are hosting a Secwepemc Language Film Festival and Book Fair!! So dig through your archives to find some Secwepemctsins Gems to share in this powerful event. Share the language with the Secwepemc Nation. This film festival is dedicated to films and books that use Secwepemc language. We would like to showcase the power and resiliency of the Secwepemc Language. The film festival is accepting films on all topics. Examples include: Hunting, Gathering, Food, Interviews, Elders, Youth, Cultural Arts, Stories etc. There will be tables to display books by Secwepemc authors.

WE INVITE FILMS THAT MEET THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

1. There is NO submission fee to submit your film to the Festival. The deadline to submit is February 21st, 2018.
2. Films are requested to be 5-20mins in length. Applicants may provide information on time stamps for films longer than 20 mins.
3. Predominantly Secwepemctsins spoken in film
4. The submitter is responsible for all costs associated with delivering their works to the Secwepemc Language Film Festival. We encourage electronic submissions.

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Complete festival submission form and include all support materials.
2. If possible send preview copy by one of the following ways:
  - (Preferred) Electronic Submission: USB, Applicants name, film title, length, Community name, and contact information.
  - Via Mail, Send submission copy to:

Chief Atahm School

Box 1068, 6371 Chief Jules Dr.

Chase, BC, V0E 1M0

P: (250) 679-8837

All filmmakers will be contacted about their submission status ASAP.

*PLEASE DO NOT SEND ORIGINALS***

To submit your film to the Secwepemc Language Film Festival, please complete attached applications form by Wednesday, February 21st at 4:30pm, 2018.