

DEC L NIZE

DECOLONIZATION

WORKSHOP - With Sakej Ward

Come and learn more about decolonization at what will undoubtedly be a very empowering, inspiring and powerful discussion. All members from Adams Lake Indian Band, Neskonlith Indian Band and Little Shuswap Indian Band are encouraged to attend. This will be one of the most important discussions of your lifetime as an indigenous person. Non band members are also welcome. Everyone will walk away with much more knowledge taught from a respected and incredible teacher. Sakej Ward is from the Mi'kmaq Nation from the community of Esgehoopetitj (Burnt Church First Nation, New Brunswick). He has a long and impressive resume including a B.A. in political science, a Masters in Indigenous Governance, and is an army veteran. He has worked with Warrior Societies across Turtle Island and his work focuses on Indigenous sovereignty and decolonizing both the colonized and colonizer.
