#Remember to Pause

March 11th marks the one year anniversary of the World Health Organization declaration of the global Covid-19 Pandemic. To say that it has been a year like no other is an understatement. Globally, there has been 117,799,584 Covid cases, and 2,615,018 deaths from Covid. The Pandemic has touched everyone's life in so many different ways. It's important that we all take time to acknowledge how the Pandemic has impacted us - to pause, reflect and remember. How have we each contributed to a better, safer world in this Pandemic? How have our words and actions positively or negatively impacted the Pandemic and the world around us? While there have been numerous challenges and difficulties through the Pandemic, it's important to not lose sight of the opportunity for growth and learning- those are gifts. Kindness in word and deed still matters.

Covid vaccine update:

We received a few more additional doses of Covid vaccine for first doses. These doses went to those who had called the Health Centre to let us know they were interested (as previous communication had advised). We are unaware at this time whether we will be getting any more allotments of first Covid doses. We know that information with FNHA and IHA can change rapidly during this Pandemic. Public Health is now starting their Public Vaccine campaign, and so people may be eligible sooner through Public Health if they missed their dose in the community. The Health Centre will continue to take names of those who live in the community who would like a first dose of Covid vaccine (on the slight chance that we get more vaccine), but we strongly encourage people to look at the opportunities available to them through Public Health. To see when you are eligible to receive the Covid vaccine through Public Health, please see: <https://news.interiorhealth.ca/news/covid-19-vaccines/> . For those who live outside of the community/Interior Health, please refer to your local Health Authority, or the Provincial vaccine rollout: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/covid-19/vaccine/plan>

Please only call Public Health to book a Covid vaccine when you are eligible (as per Provincial schedule), as the call centre is being overloaded with calls from people who don't actually qualify yet, and those who do qualify are unable to get through.

As a reminder, even when vaccinated, it is important to continue following all Public Health Covid guidelines until they are changed Provincially.
