Re: Expression of Interest call for Finance and Audit Committee Members

As per the Financial Administration Law 2019, the Adams Lake Indian Band seeks applicants for the appointment on a Finance and Audit Committee, to fulfill the roles, duties, and responsibilities as outlined in the Financial Administration Law 2019.

- As per Financial Administration Law 2019, Section 11. (1), "The Committee of the First Nation is established to provide Council with advice and recommendations in order to support Council's decision-making process respecting the financial administration of the First Nation. (2) The Council must appoint not less than three (3) members of the Committee, a majority of whom must have financial competency and whom all of whom must be independent. (3) For purposes of this section, an individual is considered to be independent if the individual does not have a direct or indirect financial relationship with the First Nation government that could, in the opinion of Council, reasonably interfere with the exercise of independent judgement as a member of the Committee".

Members of the Committee would ideally have significant skills, experience and qualifications of financial background, financial competency.

The Committee members must be appointed to hold office for staggered terms of not less than three (3) complete fiscal years.

For more information on roles and responsibilities of the Finance and Audit Committee, a copy of the Financial Administration Law 2019 can be available.

Deadline for Application: Friday, September 24, 2021, at 12:00 pm

- Chief and Council to review recipients at next duly convened meeting Monday, September 27, 2021.
